REMINDER OF THE LEGAL WARRANTIES IN FRANCE

In addition to the ALILIA EYEWEAR COUTURE international Warranty, which comes with your ALILIA EYEWEAR COUTURE creation, outlined in this booklet, ALILIA EYEWEAR COUTURE ensures legal warranties of conformity and offers services for faulty products sold from which you could benefit under the French Consumer Code (Articles L 217-4 to L 217-16), and the French Civil Code (Articles 1641 to 1648 and 2232).

In this context, we remind you of the following legal provisions:

Article L 217-4 of the French Consumer Code:

"The seller is obliged to deliver a product conformant to the contract and to respond to defects of conformity which exist at the time of issuance.

They must also respond to conformity defects resulting from the packaging, instructions for assembly or installation when these have been made their responsibility by the contract or have been produced under their responsibility".

Article L 217-5 of the French Consumer Code: "To comply with the contract, the product must:

1. Be appropriate for the use normally expected for such a product and, where appropriate:
 - correspond to the description given by the seller and have the qualities presented to the customer in the form of a sample or model;

- have the qualities that a customer might legitimately expect in view of public statements made by the seller, the manufacturer or their representative, particular in terms of advertising or labelling;

2. Or present the characteristics defined by mutual agreement by the parties or be appropriate for any special use sought by the customer that has been brought to the notice of the seller and which the latter has accepted".

Article L 217-12 of the French Consumer Code

"Action resulting from a lack of conformity is limited to two years from the delivery of the goods".

Article L 217-16 of the French Consumer Code:

"When the buyer requests that the seller, within the course of the commercial warranty granted to it during acquisition or repair of personal property, carry out a repair as covered under the warranty, immobilization periods of at least seven days will be added to the duration of the remaining warranty. This period runs from when the buyer requests intervention or from the provision for repair of the item in question, if this provision comes after the request for intervention".

Article 1641 of the French Civil Code:

"The guarantee is binding on the seller for latent defects in the item purchased which make it unfit for the purpose for which it was intended or which reduce such use to the point where the purchaser would not have bought it or would have paid a lower price had they been aware of them".

Article 1648 of the French Civil Code:

"Where a defect renders an item useless, the purchaser must initiate proceedings within two years of discovering the defect".
